Bookings should be made 24 hours in advance, although every effort will be made to accommodate passengers making bookings on shorter notice.

Passenger mobility

Operators strive to offer every assistance to passengers with reduced mobility. You are recommended to contact the operator for additional information and to discuss your particular requirements. Regrettably, due to health & safety reasons, electric wheelchairs cannot be accommodated.

CYCLING IN THE NATIONAL PARK

Cycling is a fun, healthy and environmentally friendly way to travel and explore. Please check with public transport operators for conditions applicable to bikes. For more information about cycling in the National Park visit www.lochlomond-trossachs.org and download the route cards.

Days out on your bike

West Loch Lomond Cycle Path

Cycle south from Tarbet, initially on the pavement, and then join the old road to enjoy the tranquillity of the cycle path along the bonnie banks. There are numerous beaches, stunning views north to the Highlands and refreshment at Inverbeg and Luss with numerous options for lunch. There is the option to catch the 16.15 Waterbus back to Tarbet returning at 17.30, cycle back or use the Bike Bus service to Balloch or Tarbet.

Two Lochs Tour (24 May - 2 October 2016)

Combine a Loch Lomond and Loch Katrine experience by catching the 10.00 Waterbus service from Tarbet to Inversnaid. Push your bike or cycle up the hill to the gentle undulating single road alongside the Great Trossachs Path to Stronachlachar (4 miles) and then continue around Loch Katrine or take advantage of combined Waterbus service to cruise on the Sir Walter Scott to Trossachs Pier where you can disembark for return cycle back to Inversnaid (17 miles). Refreshments and lunch available in Inversnaid, Stronachlachar and at Trossachs Pier.

The Village On The Edge (Rowardennan - Balmaha)

Catch 08.45 Waterbus service from Tarbet Pier and disembark at Rowardennan on the eastern shore for cycle south. Enjoy stunning views both west to Glen Douglas and north to the Arrochar Alps. The 7 mile cycle on gentle undulating single track road brings you to Balmaha where you have the opportunity to visit the National Park Visitor Centre or for the more active, park your bike, and climb Conic Hill (350m). A warm welcome awaits you at The Oak Tree Inn for a hearty lunch, local ales and luxury Loch Lomond ice cream. There is ample time for return cycle to Rowardennan and catch 16.45 Waterbus back to Tarbet.

Cafes, Restaurants, Toilets at Stronachlachar and Aberfoyle.

LOCH KATRINE

Stronachlachar

Stronachlachar is a small hamlet that can be found at the far end of Loch Katrine. Historically this was 'Rob Roy land', still standing is Glengyle house originally built by Rob Roy. Stronachlachar has a real sense of splendid isolation. The Pier Cafe, toilets.

Inveruglas

Magnificent views of Loch Lomond and Ben Lomond. The walk to Loch Sloy or Arrochar is a great day out enjoying superb views of Loch Long and Ben Arthur, Beinn Narnain and Beinn Ime. This is a terminus of the Cowal and Three Lochs Ways and a popular starting point for Ben Vane and Ben Vorlich. Cafe and toilets, Citylink bus stop, car parking, picnic area. B&B's in Arrochar.

Loch Lomond Shores

So much to see and do as well as some retail therapy. This special destination has a Bird of Prey Centre, Sea Life Centre, High level Ropes Course, Maid of the Loch, cycle & canoe hire. Seasonal promotions, markets, crafts, and woodland walk. Restaurants, cafes, shops, toilets, picnic areas, car parking, Hire of bikes, canoes, Twizy, pedaloes and Quadricycles

Luss

A conservation village with pretty 18th and 19th century cottages, very picturesque and photogenic. Short local walks and superb views from the pier to Ben Lomond, Inchcailloch and other Loch Lomond islands. Frequent Waterbus services to Inchcailloch and Balmaha.

Cafes, restaurants, shops, hotels, B&Bs, toilets, Citylink and local service bus stops, toilets, car parking (£).

Rowardennan

The starting point for Ben Lomond, walking part of the West Highland Way or just to relax and take in the wonderful scenery to the north of Loch Lomond. Easily accessed from Tarbet by Waterbus to the SYHA hostel jetty in Rowardennan. Hotel, bar meals, tea and coffee, toilets, Youth Hostel (also provides meals and snacks to non-residents), B&Bs, bunkhouse, car parking (£).

Tarbet

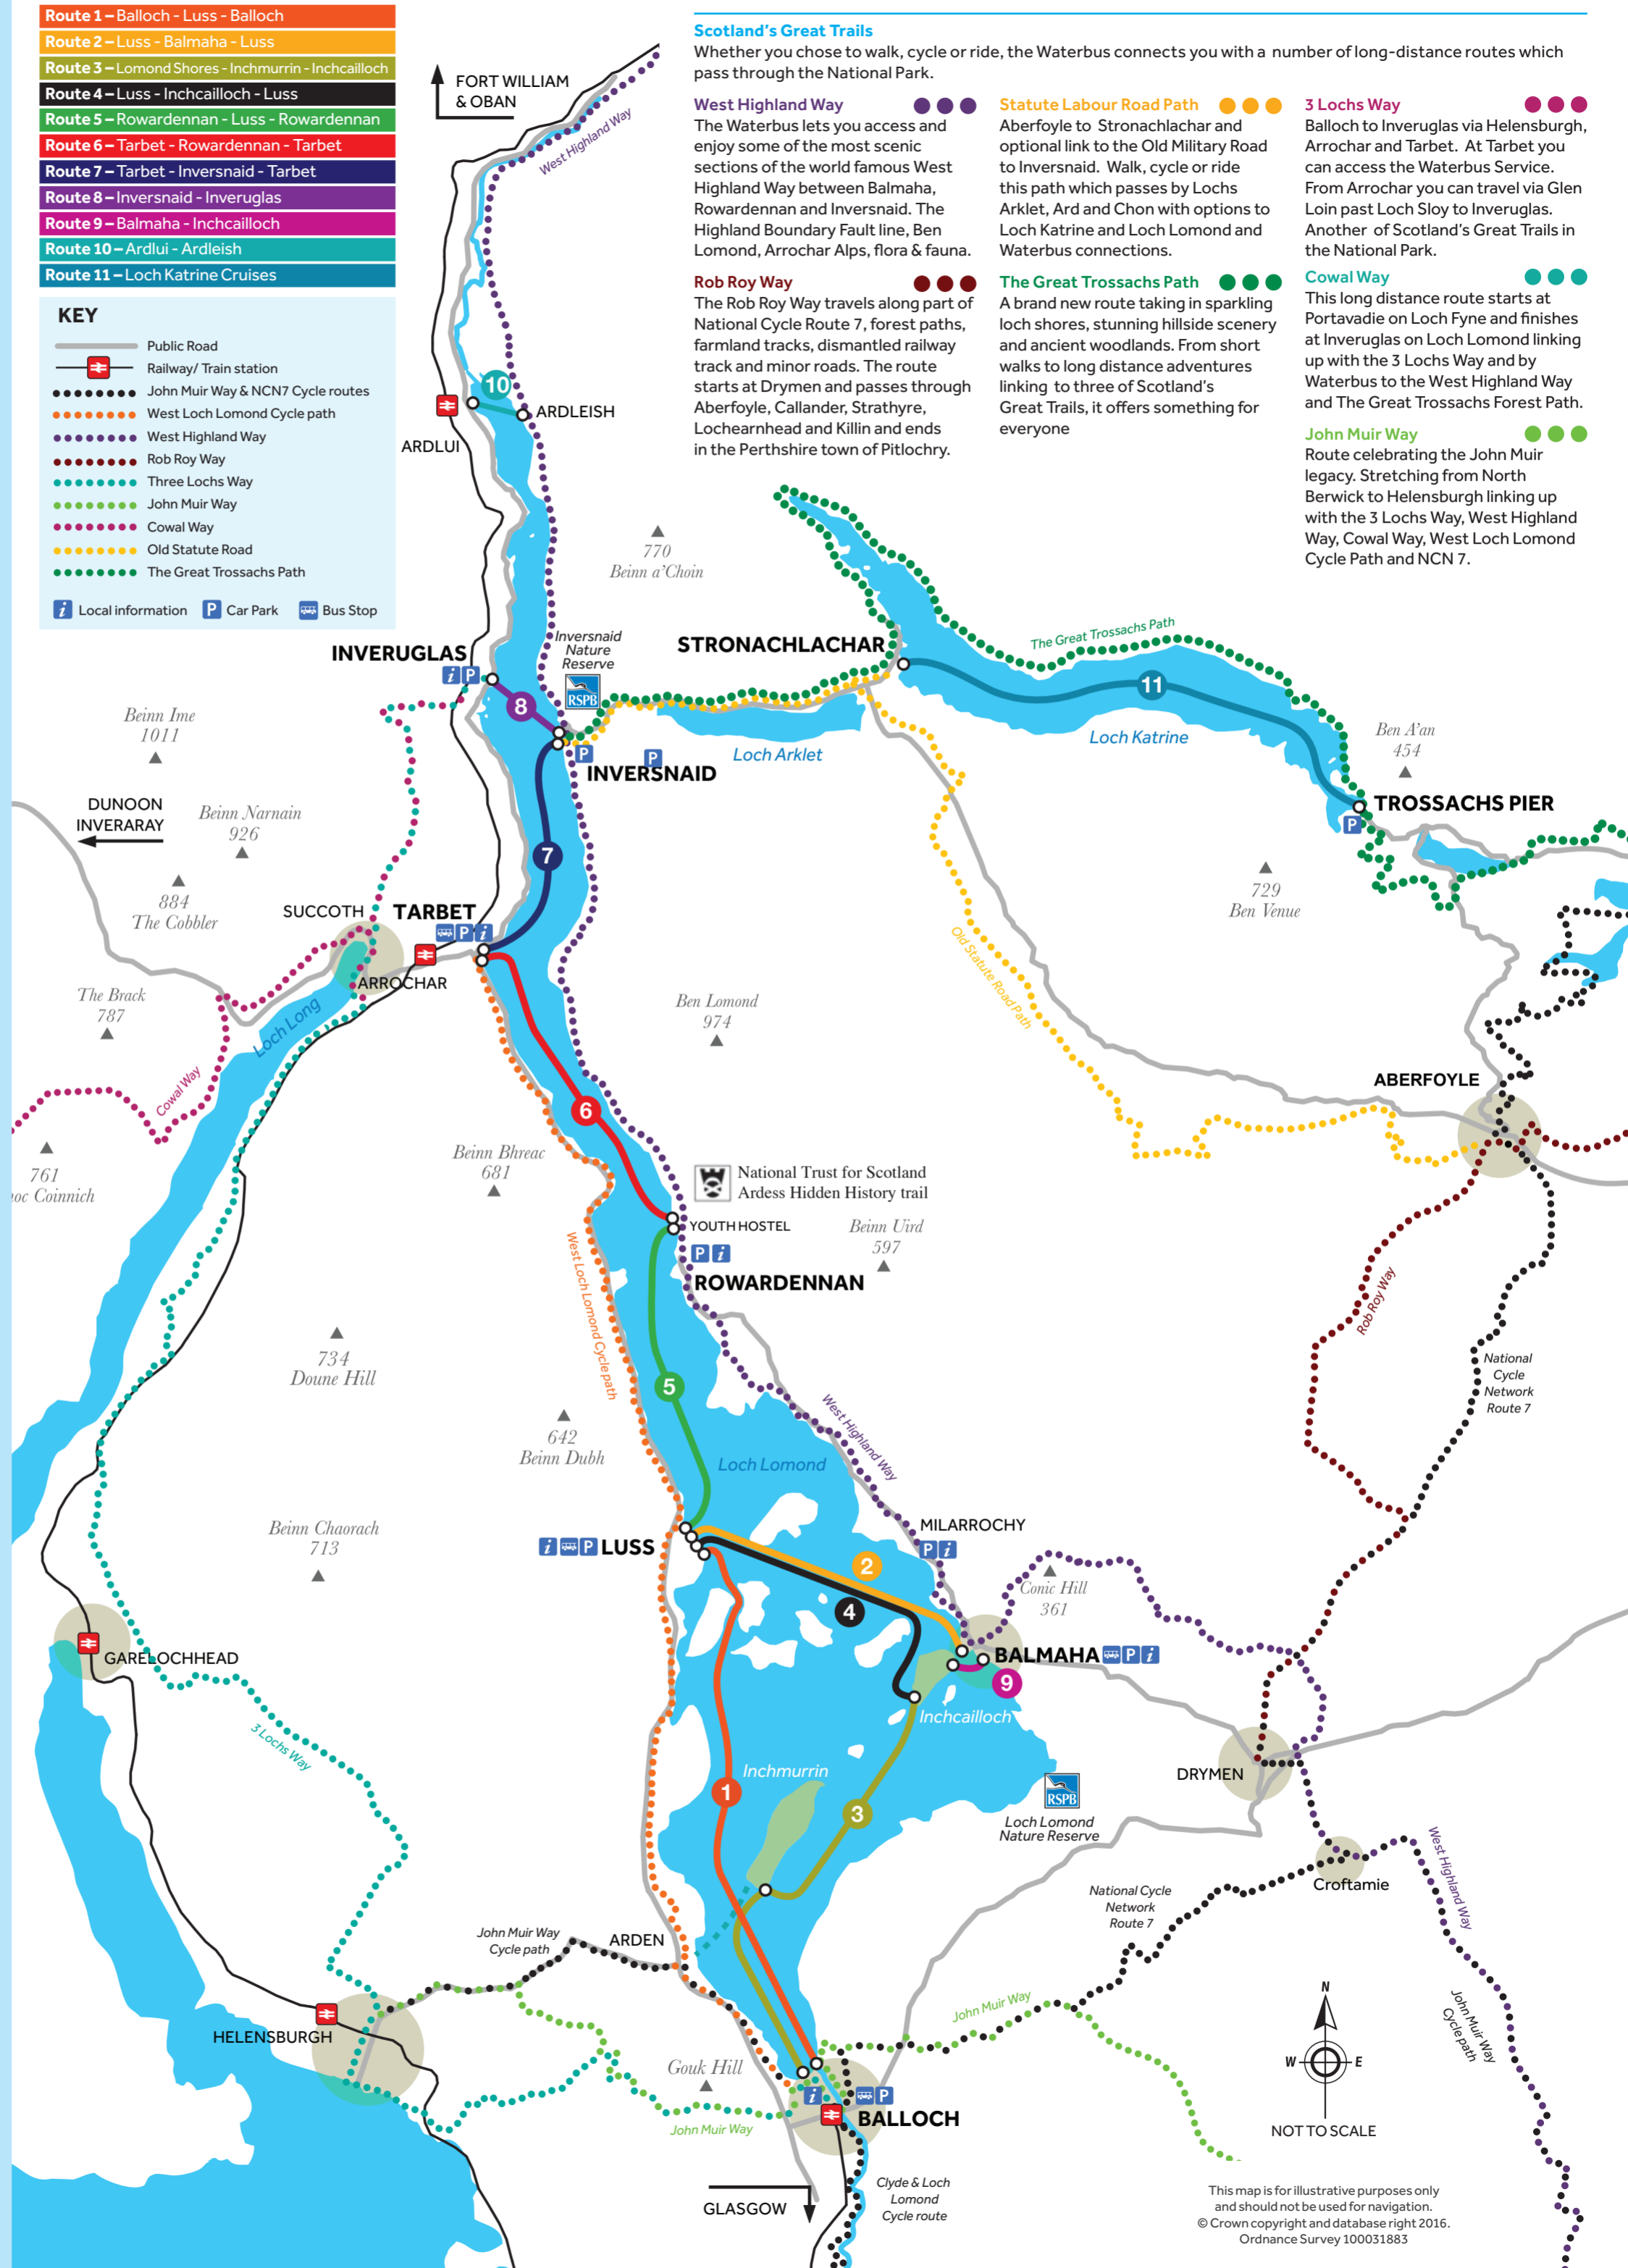

A gateway to the delights of the north section of Loch Lomond and the Arrochar Alps. Local walks, The Three Lochs Way, Cowal Way and a short Waterbus voyage to the Great Trossachs Path and West Highland Way at Inversnaid. Cafes, hotels, B&Bs, toilets, West Highland Railway station (1/2 mile), Citylink bus stop, car parking, picnic area, bicycle hire.

Trossachs Pier

The hills and forests surrounding Loch Katrine are home to many species of wildlife, including Scotland's elusive Red Squirrels. A perfect day away location where you can cycle, walk, sail, fish or simply do nothing & enjoy the views. Brenachoile Cafe, toilets, car parking (£), cycle hire.

Scotland's Great Trails

Whether you chose to walk, cycle or ride, the Waterbus connects you with a number of long-distance routes which pass through the National Park.

West Highland Way

The Waterbus lets you access and enjoy some of the most scenic sections of the world famous West Highland Way between Balmaha, Rowardennan and Inversnaid. The Highland Boundary Fault line, Ben Lomond, Arrochar Alps, flora & fauna.

Rob Roy Way

The Rob Roy Way travels along part of National Cycle Route 7, forest paths, farmland tracks, dismantled railway track and minor roads. The route starts at Drymen and passes through Aberfoyle, Callander, Strathyre, Lochearnhead and Killin and ends in the Perthshire town of Pitlochry.

Statute Labour Road Path

Aberfoyle to Stronachlachar and optional link to the Old Military Road to Inversnaid. Walk, cycle or ride this path which passes by Lochs Arklet, Ard and Chon with options to Loch Katrine and Loch Lomond and Waterbus connections.

The Great Trossachs Path

A brand new route taking in sparkling loch shores, stunning hillside scenery and ancient woodlands. From short walks to long distance adventures linking to three of Scotland's Great Trails, it offers something for everyone

3 Lochs Way

Balloch to Inveruglas via Helensburgh, Arrochar and Tarbet. At Tarbet you can access the Waterbus Service. From Arrochar you can travel via Glen Loin past Loch Sloy to Inveruglas. Another of Scotland's Great Trails in the National Park.

Cowal Way

This long distance route starts at Portavadie on Loch Fyne and finishes at Inveruglas on Loch Lomond linking up with the 3 Lochs Way and by Waterbus to the West Highland Way and The Great Trossachs Forest Path.

John Muir Way

Route celebrating the John Muir legacy. Stretching from North Berwick to Helensburgh linking up with the 3 Lochs Way, West Highland Way, Cowal Way, West Loch Lomond Cycle Path and NCN 7.
