

EIR Ref: 2017-046

25th July 2017

REQUEST UNDER ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) REGULATIONS 2004

I refer to your request for information, received by email on 31st May 2017.

We have applied the exemption under Section 39(2) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 as we have determined that the information sought in your request is environmental information. We are therefore handling your request under the terms of the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 (EIRs). In this case the public interest in maintaining this exemption and in dealing with the request in line with the requirements of the EIRs outweighs any public interest in disclosing the information under FOISA.

Your specific request and the response from the National Park Authority are provided below.

“1: I request that you provide all current and superseded documents relating to this planning application 2016/0151 Loch Chon

2: Please supply all communications and agreements with the contractor and the clerk of works or LLTNPA in regards to -

a. moving the locations of camping pitches.

b. pitch construction methods other than the surface scraping agreed to in the planning consent.

c. alteration of path routes and path construction methods.

d. agreements between contractor and the environmental clerk of works, other representative of LLTNP or the Planning Authority to enter into the greater environment with vehicles outside the immediate line of the paths being constructed where unnecessary environmental damage has occurred as a result of these actions.

e. provision of an emergency water supply for the first 10 weeks after opening of the site with details of what form the emergency water supply was delivered during that period.”

In response to the first question all current and superseded documents relating to the planning application specified have been released, with the exception of correspondence to and from yourself, at Appendix A.

Email records and files were searched according to the criteria in your request and all documents which fall under the scope of your request are being released and are at Appendix B.

Names of third parties who have not given consent to release of their details, contact telephone numbers and email addresses have been redacted from the documents in both Appendices in accordance with Regulation 11(2) of the EIRs and Data Protection Principles.

Yours sincerely,

Governance & Legal Team
