If in the case of a continuing offence the contravention is continued after conviction, the offender shall be guilty of a further offence and liable on summary conviction to an additional fine not exceeding £100 for each day on which the contravention is so continued.

- (14) (1) If a tree other than one which is part of a woodland is removed, uprooted or destroyed in contravention of this Order, or is removed, uprooted or destroyed or dies at a time when its felling is authorised only by virtue of the provisions of Section 58 (6) of the Act relating to uprooting or felling where urgently necessary in the interests of safety, it shall be the duty of the owner of the land, unless on his application the Planning Authority dispense with this requirement, to plant another tree of appropriate size and species at the same place as soon as he reasonably can.
- (2) In relation to any tree planted pursuant to paragraph (1) above this Order shall apply as it applied to the original tree.
- (3) If it appears to the Planning Authority that the provision in paragraph (1) above has not been complied with in the case of any tree or trees, they may, at any time within two years from the date on which failure to comply with this provision came to their knowledge, serve the owner of the land a notice requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the notice, to plant a tree or trees of such size and species as may be so specified, and the provisions of Section 99 of the Act shall apply in any such case.
