

Role Profile: Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National Park Authority Board

Role:

Depute Convener

Context:

See Board Member Role Profile

The Depute Convener is a critical role for the organisation. As well as assisting the Convener in their duties and deputising when required, the Depute Convener will be the Board lead for driving key organisational aims, as agreed with the Convener.

Training, support and development is available to the Depute Convener, and we encourage a skills-based approach to nominating and electing the Depute Convener.

Skills and Characteristics:

- Strong communication and collaboration skills
- Ability to develop and maintain strong working relationships internally and externally
- An understanding of, and commitment to, the continued development of an equal, diverse and inclusive Board
- Commitment to Board Training and Development
- Ability to think strategically and innovatively
- Understanding of, and commitment to, the aims and purpose of the National Park

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assist the Convener in their duties and responsibilities where appropriate and deputise as required
- Act as support for Board Members in the execution of their role.
- Lead the Board's work on areas of priority, as agreed with the Convener - covering the Boards' organisational, regional, national and international vision as appropriate.

Role Profile: Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National Park Authority Board

Time Commitment and Remuneration:

The Convenor is required to commit a total of between 4 to 6 days per month (depending on workload) to their role and are paid £226.75 per day (subject to review) per day for their work.