Dear [REDACTED]

REQUEST UNDER FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

Thank you for your request for access to information held by the National Park Authority, which we received by email on 29 August 2024. We have determined that the information you have requested is environmental information, as set out in the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 (EIRs). Under section 39(2) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA), environmental information is exempt from disclosure under FOISA, as it is covered by the EIRs. As a result, we are processing your request under the EIRs.

Your Request

"Re-reading the response [EIR-2016-051], however, I note that "In addition some email correspondence which includes details of the developer bids has been withheld from release as this information is commercially sensitive and excepted from release under R10(5)(e) and R10(5)(f) of the EIRs". The purpose of this email is to make a new request for that information which was withheld noting that the applicability of the exemptions you have quoted are likely to have changed in the intervening period."

Our Response

We have reviewed the material that was collated in relation to EIR-2016-051 and confirm that, where information was withheld for reasons other than the protection of personal data, the exemptions that applied in 2016, do not apply today. Please find attached the information that was previously withheld from disclosure. Please note that personal data continues to be redacted, in line with Regulation 10(3) and Regulation 11 of the EIRs.

Further Information

If you are unhappy with our response, you have the right to ask us to review our handling of your request. You also retain the right to appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner. Further information on the review and appeals process can be found in the attached sheet.

Yours sincerely

Information Management
Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National Park Authority

Review Procedure

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, or the way in which the Authority has dealt with your request, you are entitled to require the Authority to review its decision. Please note that in order for a review to take place you are required to:

- Send your request for review in writing, setting out in full the reasons why you are requesting a review.
- Submit your review request within 40 working days of either the date on which you received a response from the Authority or the date by which you should have received a response under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, whichever is the later.
- address your review request to:

Information Manager
Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park Authority
National Park Headquarters
Carrochan
Carrochan Road
Balloch
G83 8EG
E-mail: info@lochlomond-trossachs.org

The review will be handled by staff who were not involved in the original decision. You will receive notice of the result of your review within 20 working days.

If you are not satisfied with the response to your request for review, you can contact the Scottish Information Commissioner, the independent body which oversees the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, at:

Hi Mairi,

I have just spoken to [REDACTED] there and Flamingo Land can no longer make the 28th September.

I remember initially you had mentioned the afternoon of the 30th September as being a time that both you and Stuart could attend? Is that still the case? If so, I will schedule a meeting in AC and circulate a meeting invitation.

Best Regards,

We are now looking at meeting you on Monday 28th September at 9.00am in Balloch (at Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park Authorities offices at [REDACTED] an, Carrochan Road, Balloch, G83 8EG).

Attending would be [REDACTED] (Scottish Enterprise), Stuart Mearns (Head of Planning at LL&T NPA), Mairi Bell (LL&T NPA) and myself.

I will circulate an agenda prior to the meeting.

Are you and [REDACTED] and your team ok for this proposed time and date ?
Regards

[REDACTED] – This is proving problematic.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of Scottish Enterprise are in Edinburgh in the morning of 30th but could do 2.00pm to 5.00pm.

I see that you can only do until 3.00pm on that day. Ideally we need 3 hours. Is it possible to accommodate this date or if not please advise alternatives and we can try again.

Regards
