Dear XXX

REQUEST UNDER FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

Thank you for your request for access to information held by the National Park Authority, which was received by email on 17th September 2025. Your request had been processed under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 and our response is provided below.

Your Request

“I was hoping to be able to watch a recording of this week's most recent Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park Board meeting - but unfortunately can't seem to find a playback recording of the said meeting on the LLTNP website.

As such, I would be most grateful if you could please direct me to where on the website I could find a relevant playback link to the meeting.”

Our Response

The National Park Authority does not hold a video (or audio) recording of the Board meeting which took place on 15 September 2025. We therefore advise you, under section 17(1) of FOISA, that the information you have requested is not held.

Please note that the written minutes of our Board Meetings are produced and published on our website ahead of the next meeting of the Board.

If there is any information about the meeting held on 15th September 2025 which we can help you with in the meantime, please let us know.

Yours sincerely

Information Management

Review Procedure

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, or the way in which the Authority has dealt with your request, you are entitled to require the Authority to review its decision.

Please note that in order for a review to take place you are required to:

- Send your request for review in writing, setting out in full the reasons why you are requesting a review.
- Submit your review request within 40 working days of either the date on which you received a response from the Authority or the date by which you should have received a response under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, whichever is the later.
- address your review request to:

Information Manager
Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park Authority
National Park Headquarters
Carrochan
Carrochan Road
Balloch
